ORDER:

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Pleader for Home appearing for the respondents.

2. Petitioner seeks a writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in interfering with the day to day affairs of the petitioner institution and disturbing its students and staff, as illegal and arbitrary.

3. It is the grievance of the petitioner that the police, Arundelpet police station have been visiting the petitioner institution and warned him, and his staff, not to conduct the classes and when they questioned the respondent-officials stated that they have received a complaint against the institution.

4. All the said allegations have been denied by filing a counter stating that respondents and their staff never visited the institution and never insisted them not to conduct the classes. It is further stated that the police never visited the petitioner institution on any day and they never disturbed the management of the petitioner institution and no complaints were received against the petitioner.

5. In view of the aforesaid categorical denial and in the absence of any complaint by the petitioner before the Superintendent of Police, I am of the opinion that there is no truth in any of the allegations made in the writ petition.

6. Accordingly, the Writ Petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.
